

Round Table Series

24th October

Event : Breakfast Roundtable with ‘Belgium Luxembourg Business Association’ & ‘Indo Dutch Chambers of Business and Sciences’

Topic: “Development of EV Ecosystem in India & Contemporary Issues Faced by Management & Learnings thereof”

Honorable Speakers:

Mr. Reji Pillai, President Smart Grid Forum

Mr. Rajiv Bhalla, Managing Director, Barco India

Audience: 45

Venue: The Royal Plaza Hotel, New Delhi

Session 1: Welcome Address by Mr Rajesh Srivastava, Chairman IDCBS & CMD Rabo Equity Advisors

Mr. Rajesh Srivastava welcomed the honorable speakers, Embassy officials & the audience who attended the event and shared his gratitude for collaborating with “Belgium Luxembourg Business Association” and future Benelux joint events with “Indo Dutch Chamber of Business & Sciences”

He then invited Mr. Reji Kumar Pillai, President, Smart grid forum to talk about ‘Development of Electric Vehicle ecosystem in India’

Mr. Reji Kumar Pillai, President, Smart grid forum

He is an internationally renowned expert with over three decades of experience in the electricity sector in diverse functions covering the entire value chain and across continents. He is spearheading a mission to leverage technology to transform the electric grid in India and light every home at affordable cost through sustainable developmental models in the form of Electrical Vehicle.

Mr. Pillai spoke about various developments on Electrical Vehicle and Eco system in India, He shared his experience in the electricity sector in diverse functions covering the entire value chain across the continents. He spoke about his mission to leverage technology to transform the electric grid in India and Electrical vehicle usage at affordable cost through sustainable developmental models.

Session 3: Introductory Remarks by Mr Rajeev Dhawan, President BLBA

Mr Rajeev Dhawan presented the Introductory remarks for Mr Rajiv Bhalla, Managing Director, Barco India. He shared his gratitude towards the association with IDCBS, he also discussed his plans of doing series of breakfast events which can be done once every three months with the outstanding speakers who can talk about the topics of common interest.

He than introduced Mr. Rajiv Bhalla to share his views on “Contemporary Issues faced by Management & Learnings thereof”

Mr. Rajiv Bhalla an industry veteran, is the Managing Director at Barco Electronic Systems Pvt. Ltd, a 100% owned subsidiary of BARCO NV Belgium who has more than 25 years of senior leadership experience across consumer electronics & IT domains, Rajiv has been associated with global technology leaders like Intel, NEC, Microsoft, and Thomson Consumer Electronics.

Mr. Rajeev Bhalla our second panelist, he shared his life experiences and his beliefs on what it takes to succeed in India. He also emphasized on “How Leadership in itself is a journey the scenery, as we go along continues to change”

He also discussed about the challenges faced by most of the CEO's and the factors on which they need to reflect on and adapt ourselves with the changing time.

Closing Remarks & Vote of Thanks by Ignance Hindrick, Vice President BLBA

Mr. Ignance Hindrick, conveyed his thanks to all the participants Panelists and Sponsors. He extended his thanks to the organizing committee for their efforts and expressed his satisfaction with the interactive nature of the discussion while congratulating participants to the extensive networking that had taken place , which he hoped would continue going forward.

Event Partners

EVENT PICTURES

Thank you our honorable speakers

Thank you our honorable guests

